Almighty God, since you have shone upon us by your gospel, grant that we may always be so guided by its light that all our love may be rightly directed. May the power of your Spirit extinguish in us every sin and temptation, that we may gather new fervor to live by your word daily. Do not let the coldness of our flesh take possession of us, but may we continually advance in the way of piety, until we come to that blessed rest, to which you invite us, and which has been obtained for us by the blood of our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.
