CONFESSION AND PRAYER

Call to Confession: Heidelberg Catechism Q&A 54 PH p. 883

What do you believe concerning "the holy catholic church"?

I believe that the Son of God through his Spirit and Word, out of the entire human race, from the beginning of the world to its end, gathers, protects, and preserves for himself a community chosen for eternal life and united in true faith. And of this community I am and always will be a living member.

Prayer of Confession: based on Our World Belongs to God § 43

Response: "Jesu, Jesu, Fill Us with Your Love" PH 601

Assurance of Pardon: based on 1 Peter 2:9–10

Litany of Response based on Belhar Confession Art. 2 and Our World Belongs to God § 44

Christ's work of reconciliation is manifest in the Church as the community of believers who have been reconciled with God and with one another;

Following the apostles, the church is sent with this good news of the gospel of the kingdom.

We make disciples of all nations, feed the hungry, and proclaim that in the name of Christ there is forgiveness and new life to tell the news that our world belongs to God.

We share one faith, have one calling, are of one soul and one mind; have one God and Father, are filled with one Spirit, are baptized with one baptism, eat of one bread and drink of one cup, confess one name, are obedient to one Lord, work for one cause, and share one hope.

Together we come to know the height and the breadth and the depth of the love of Christ; are built up to the stature of Christ, together we know and bear one another’s burdens. We repent of leaving this work to a few, and we rejoice that the Spirit is waking us to see our mission in God’s world. Together we pray; together we serve God in this world.
